

Neptunea lyrata decemcostata. It measures 48 mm. It is in fair condition. There is damage at the spire and wear along the lip. It still has nice ribs and could be a nice addition to a growth series. This shell was dead collected in Nova Scotia, Canada.

3 $, Sep 2019

