

Pseudovertagus aluco. It measures 63 mm. It is in fair to good condition, with operculum. There is some wear to the surface of the shell, a chip at the posterior end, and 3 partial predator drill holes. It has nice dark color on the ventral side and a well formed siphonal canal. I live collected this shell in Fiji

1 $, Sep 2019

