

Notocypraea comptonii casta* Schilder & Summers measures 24 mm. This is a very nice specimen but it is not gem as there are two glazed-over "ridges" on the posterior end. Although the shell appears somewhat gray in the photos, it is white.

Data: Off Port Macdonnell, South Australia, Australia on the Great Australian Bight

18 $, Feb 2019

