

stolida kwajaleinensis Martin & Sanders, 1983. This shell was found under dead coral in 10 feet of water at Kwajalein Atoll. This specimen measures 20.3 mm by dial caliper and is GEM. Only one this trip the area was grown over with new coral. Great for the reef not so good for the shell collector looking for dead coral chunks.

76 $, Juin 14

