

Haliotis conicopora

F+++ 177mm

Large with very nice brownish red colouring!

Some damage by marine tube worms but shows very nicely.

This species is notorious for extremely poor quality due to heavy erosion & marine worm damage.

Collected by diver - South coast of Western Australia.

No bid at 80 €, April 2017

