

Pecten hastata hericia

They are normally pink, but rarely found in colors like yellow and white. This one is a near gem quality albinistic specimen at 63mm. It was trawled off the south end of Vancouver Island, Canada

51 $, May 2021

