

Cyrtopleura costata (176mm...ust under seven inches) Collected in the 1980's on the Cedar Key, Florida flats, back when the real monsters could be found. This is the largest set of wings I have personally possessed. Exact data accompanies this specimen. Both valves have some rough lines that are often associated with the largest pairs, but the edges, spoons, and overall condition is good for the size.

154 $, Jan 2020

