

Tegula eiseni* Jordan measure 23 mm and 24 mm. The smaller specimen has the operculum.

Data: On underside edges of rocks at low tide, Bahia de Todos Santos, Baja California, Mexico March 1984
2.5 $, Aug 2019

