

Livonia mammilla F++/F+++, 245 mm, SE Australia, now available. Good size, very heavy and mature, with intact lip. Superb, dark, regular reticulated pattern and a stunning orange aperture. Some impurities on spire and growth marks near the lip, but in overall good condition for this species (which is often damaged, particularly the lip and canal area, and frequently with unsightly blemishes). This specimen has a particularly attractive aperture and base

166 $, Sep 2019

