

Livonia mammilla F++/F+++ , 230 mm, SE Australia, now available. Mature specimen, with largely intact lip and canal (minor frilling only). Dark rusty spire, contrasting well with the creamy/tan last whorl with very dark reticulated pattern. As usual with this species, there are some impurities and also a growth line on the base, but overall the condition is very good for the species

110 $, Sep 2019

