

Lienardi f. prevosti

Remarks: the holotype of C. lienardi as described by Bernardi & Crosse 1861 is a melanistic black specimen, evidently not recognized by Sowerby iii that rescribed the same species as C. prevosti, an orange specimen with a double banded body whorl. We now know that the like many Phasmoconus the species occurs in several colors.

Ile des Pines, New Caledonia, 90's

38,8 mm w/op GEM

26 $, Mars 2016

