

Name of Shell	Conus magnificus	Family	CONIDAE
Locality	Negros Island, Philippines	Depth	40m.
Size	50mm	Grade	F++

Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Uncommon species. • Hard to find nowadays. • Tiny and large white tents form into spiral zigzag formation of streaks. • Small size with a dark pigmented body whorl. • With two deep scars and tiny chips on the lip.
--------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

0 enchère à 7 € en Oct 09

