

broderipii 85.5mm, dredged in 100m off Natal South Coast, South Africa. This is a live taken shell, the drills on the base do not go through the shell. the shell had some significant fish bites which have been repaired (using dental technology) to improve the aesthetic appearance of the shell

300 $, March 2017

