

Cypraea capensis gorda

Dredged at 84m off Algoa Bay , South Africa. These are VERY RARE much more rare than the Port Alfred "gorda" that is "cineracea" now. VERY heavy calloused base. 1small drill on base and 1 on side minor inclusions as usual on base. Very fresh like live though. Dorsally displays like a gem live shell.

32,13mm

16 $, Jun 2017

