

Zoila decipiens decipiens Smith, E.A., 1880, 49.1mm There is white common for this specie white dot - "snow flake" on the posterior canal clearly visible on the last photo, otherwise Gem. SCUBA dived off Broome, Western Australia at 20 meters depth

20 $, May 2020

