

Very large, spectacular Umbilia hesitata (Iredale, 1916) GEM-, 103.4 mm mm, SE Australia, now available. This is a huge specimen in exquisite condition (please see photos for more information). This shell exhibits high gloss, a very inflated dorsum and a superbly delineated mantle line across the dorsum. A rare combination of size and beauty for this species!
48 €, Oct 2018

