

Cypraea mus tristensis*, Petuch, E.J., 1987

Very unusual! 54.7 mm. F++/Gem ; Venezuela. This is mus tristensis. This is a relatively rare form, different from the classic tristensis. A stunning spotted pattern in combination with dark zig zag figures on a white/blue background and with a very beautiful dark margina make this specimen unique.

51 $, May 2019

