

Zoila venusta episema Iredale, 1939 F+++ , 54.3 mm, form 'sorrentensis', Western Australia, now available. A stunning shell with rich chestnut markings on a cream ground with elements of pinkish purple toward the margins. There are a few minute enclosed sandgrains and some very minor growth marks on the dorsum, not intrusive, so the shell is overall in excellent condition

24 $, Oct 2018

