

This giant Florida horse conch measures just over 15" long. The aperture and the lip are flawless and the color is a beautiful pinkish orange! The tips are good. There are some worm holes (very common with shells this large). The siphonal canal tip has some natural chips. The operculum is also included with this shell!

Triplofusus giganteus is the NEW scientific name for this shell

35 $, feb 2018

