

Triplofusus giganteus is the NEW scientific name for this shell. The former name is Pleuroploca gigantea

This VERY large Florida horse conch measures just under 15" long. The aperture and the lip are flawless and the color is beautiful! The tips are good. There is a minor natural chip on the siphonal canal. The protoconch also has a minor chip. The operculum is also included with this shell!

47 $, Jan 2018

