

Cymbiola irvinae (Smith, 1909) 111.5 mm, Madura, Western Australia. This large, exquisitely sculptured fossil is of late Pliocene age. Note the very sharp sculpture, with even the protoconch axials still intact! Some (almost inevitable) damage to the lip, but overall in excellent condition

143 Feb 2019

