

Trophon geversianus 99 mm

This is very close to the World Record Size and is in amazing condition for the size. Some ridges are always chipped, even on smaller specimens. The bottom line is this displays very well. Although live taken, the operculum has been lost after 47 years...it was collected in 1972! F+

46 $, Oct 2019

