

Natica acinonyx Marche-Marchad, 1957

One of the most wonderful Naticids, very sought after by collectors but rare enough, seldom offered and usually very rusty stained. This is a giant specimen from old collection, unfortunately without operculum but giant and with a striking nice pattern of coalescing chocolate spotting on a warm orange ground.

Not to miss, hardly such nice !

Conakry, Guinea, 90's
37,2 mm F3/GEM

30 $, Mars 2016

