

This is a Pecten langfordi half that is 30.6mm (maximum dimension). Sunrise shell.

- Beautiful red color and nice pattern on the outside and with a dark inside.
- Large size.
- These hard to get deep water shells are highly prized both as specimen shells and for jewelry.
- This half would make an excellent center piece on a pendant.

Found on the island of Oahu, Hawaii.

20 $, Jan 2018

