

Nodipecten fragosus. It measures 89 x 90 mm. It is in fair condition. One valve is missing an "ear" at the hinge, has one broken knob and a hole in the valve near the hinge. The other valve has no damage and has intact knobs. This shell was collected at the South River scallop pile, NC, in the 1970s

4.5 $, Oct 2019

