

Vermicularia spirata*, Philippi measure 80 mm (3 intertwined tubes), 87 mm (2 intertwined tubes) and 101 mm (single tube). None of the apertures are perfect and there are growth marks. The 80 mm specimen has one broken tube with the spire of that specimen missing. Data: Taken in eel grass beds on mud bottom at 5 foot depth, Marathon Key, Florida Keys, Florida, USA October 1999

81 $, May 2019

