

Chione elevata.

It measures 27 mm. This species can have different colors in the interior. This specimen is purple and light yellow. It is in good condition. It has nice fronds but there are some small nicks on some of the fronds and a small predator drill hole on the edge of one valve. I dead collected this shell in Panama City, Florida.

1 $, Jun 2020

