

Cymbiola magnifica altispira (Mayblom, 1951) F+++, ~210 mm Queensland, Australia. Attractive piece of the northern iteration of this popular volute. Rather good size for altispira, quite heavy for this form, and with beautiful colouration pattern. Minor trimming to lip and canal and some blemishes indicated in photos, but overall a very nice specimen of this comparatively uncommon form.

104 $, Sep 2019

