

Scaphella dubia georgiana.

The specimen measures 68.4 mm in length. The specimen was dredged from deep water off South Florida. It is about as close to gem as this species gets. The lip is natural with a couple of nicks. There is a small repair mark on the body whorl near the siphon.

120 $, Mar 2019

